This international conference commemorates the 450th anniversary of the death of St. Ignatius Loyola, and the 500th anniversary of the births of St. Francis Xavier and Blessed Peter Faber, though a study of the history and practice of the Spiritual Exercises, the Ignatian text that motivated them.

An opportunity to make the Exercises at Loyola is available to interested participants immediately before the congress. There will be directors of different nationalities and linguistic groups (specifically English, French, Italian, and Spanish but others could be added depending on demand) to provide points for reflection and/or individual guidance. The retreat will begin on 12 August. There is a €50 registration fee, paid in advance, and a charge of €240 for room and board.

The conference from 20-26 August, including per diem, costs €300. The optional trip to Javier will cost an additional €35. All participants must register. Restrictions on number and a desire for widespread representation may result in the exclusion of some applicants.

There will be simultaneous translation between English, French, and Spanish.
